

South West Pinnacle

INDIGENOUS AND NATIVE TITLE POLICY

South West Pinnacle Exploration Private Limited recognises and accepts the rights of indigenous people and will at all time complies with, and be considerate of Legislation, Regulations and accepted customs.

The company will, when working in areas that may contain artefacts or sacred sites, comply in all regards to the laws that govern to protect those items or sites.

Employees will not remove or interfere with artefacts or sites nor will they impede or hinder persons rightfully engaged in any authorised activities on any such site. Employees will not purchase and/or traffic in, artefacts or items that are protected by the law of any country that prohibits the dealing in, or the export of such items of heritage significance.

South West Pinnacle Exploration Private Limited will report any activities where it is believed there is a contravention of the laws governing indigenous artefacts and sites. Items being legally removed from an area or country will be correctly certified and cleared by the proper authorities.

South West Pinnacle Exploration Private Limited is proactive in the support of the employment of indigenous people and will provide proper training and assistance, in line with its Equal Opportunity Policy.

Dated: 1st January 2007

Signed by: _____
Roger Lord – Director