South West Pinnacle

Explore the future

INDIGENOUS AND NATIVE TITLE POLICY

South West Pinnacle Exploration Limited recognizes and accepts the rights of indigenous people and will at all time complies with, and be considerate of Legislation, Regulations and accepted customs.

The company will, when working in areas that may contain artifacts or sacred sites, comply in all regards to the laws that govern to protect those items or sites.

Employees will not remove or interfere with artifacts or sites nor will they impede or hinder persons rightfully engaged in any authorized activities on any such site. Employees will not purchase and/or traffic in, artifacts or items that are protected by the law of any country that prohibits the dealing in, or the export of such items of heritage significance.

South West Pinnacle Exploration Limited will report any activities where it is believed there is a contravention of the laws governing indigenous artifacts and sites. Items being legally removed from an area or country will be correctly certified and cleared by the proper authorities.

South West Pinnacle Exploration Limited is proactive in the support of the employment of indigenous people and will provide proper training and assistance, in line with its Equal Opportunity Policy.

Dated: 17th November 2017

Signed by: Vikas Jain – Managing Director